

CHICAGO SINAI CONGREGATION

Shabbat Information

Friday, January 9, 2026

Whether you are joining us tonight in-person, or online, we are so happy to celebrate Shabbat together.

Tonight's service and music is led by Rabbi Greene, Rabbi Benoff, Cantor Will, and Sinai's Youth Choir.

We welcome and are honored to hear remarks from Governor JB Pritzker.

Saturday, January 10

Torah Study | 9:30 AM | In-Person and Zoom

Will be led by Rabbi Benoff.

Sunday, January 11

Community Conversations: Hearing from the Candidates | 10 AM

Join us for a community conversation with State Senator Sara Feigenholtz, and Nick Uniejewski. Each will participate separately in a moderated discussion and Q&A, creating space to hear directly from each about their values, priorities, and vision for leadership.

Volunteer Shabbat | 6:15 PM

We honor all of our Sinai social action volunteers!

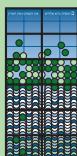

Did you participate in Mitzvah Day 2025? Did you shop and bring groceries for our undocumented neighbors? Did you prepare food at Sunday Suppers, work the Stone Temple Garden, pack for Blessings in a Backpack, or drive for Maot Chitim? We want to thank you, on this MLK Shabbat and weekend of Mitzvah Day, for all you do for our community.

Striving to Be Human in the 21st Century

Wednesdays | January 14-April 1 | 11 AM

Join us as we explore the new book, Striving to Be Human: Jewish Perspectives on Twenty-First-Century Challenges, engaging one chapter each week through thoughtful discussion and Jewish text. Together, we'll reflect on how Jewish wisdom can guide us toward ethical living and human dignity in the 21st century.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

Chicago Sinai Congregation is committed to being a House of Prayer for All People. Our congregation reflects the rich tapestry of humanity: people of all ages, people of all races, people of diverse religious backgrounds, individuals possessing a wide range of physical ability and gender identities. We constantly strive to be a welcoming community to all.
