Let's Talk About: Ripples of Divorce Across the Lifespan

Wednesday, March 18 | 7 PM | Zoom

Divorce touches nearly every family and often echoes across generations. This virtual session with Rabbi Ezra Weinberg and Batsheva Ganz, LMHC, co-founders of Areivut, moderated by Chicago Sinai clergy, invites adult children, parents, grandparents, and anyone impacted to explore how we reframe divorce, navigate lifecycle moments, and strengthen our capacity to respond as a caring, compassionate Jewish community.

For more information or the Zoom link, please contact Ally Frank at AllyFrank@jcfs.org.

Reclaiming the Jewish Story: An Urgent Conversation with Ben M. Freeman, Founder of the Modern Jewish Pride Movement

Tuesday, April 21 | 7:00 PM | In-Person

You are invited to an unforgettable and thought-provoking conversation with Ben M. Freeman, author of the seminal Jewish Pride trilogy and founder of the eponymous social movement. In conversation with Vlad Khaykin—a subject in Ben's groundbreaking new book proving Jewish indigeneity to Israel—Ben will share fascinating research and perspective on how modern hatred of Jews can only be overcome by unshakable connections and commitments to Jewish identity, values and Zionism.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

Chicago Sinai Congregation is committed to being a House of Prayer for All People. Our congregation reflects the rich tapestry of humanity: people of all ages, people of all races, people of diverse religious backgrounds, individuals possessing a wide range of physical ability and gender identities. We constantly strive to be a welcoming community to all.
