Nefesh Mountain “Storytellers”

Sunday, May 31 | 7 PM | In-Person

There's still time to reserve your spot! Experience an exclusive and thrilling acoustic performance by Nefesh Mountain “Storytellers.” Renowned for infusing Jewish tradition and soul into the rich tapestry of American roots music and amongst the preeminent Americana-Bluegrass bands, they will explore their vast and vibrant repertoire.

We express our sincerest gratitude to Christopher Segal for his generous support that has made this performance possible.

We extend our appreciation to Nina Abnee, Amy Ballis, Rabbi Benoff, Ellen Kent, Jill Peters, Penny Pollack, Emily Rotenberg, Fanchon Simons, and Carol Yanowitz Miller for graciously contributing to the dessert reception.

Light and Shadow: How Judaism Understands Suffering and Happiness

Tuesday, June 9 | 11:30 AM Lunch | 12 PM Program Begins

In-Person and Zoom

Join two prominent scholars, Professor James Diamond from the University of Waterloo and Sinai's very own Professor Ken Seeskin, to explore one of life's deepest questions: how suffering and happiness shape the Jewish understanding of the human condition. Drawing on biblical and rabbinic texts, the works of Maimonides, and modern Jewish thought, we will examine how suffering and happiness influence each other and guide our understanding of the meaning of life.

Pride Shabbat Service

Friday, June 26 | 6:15 PM | In-Person and Livestreamed on our website

Join us for Pride Shabbat as we celebrate the beauty and diversity of our community. During the service, congregants will share personal stories about pride, identity, and what it means to bring their full selves into Jewish life.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

Chicago Sinai Congregation is committed to being a House of Prayer for All People. Our congregation reflects the rich tapestry of humanity: people of all ages, people of all races, people of diverse religious backgrounds, individuals possessing a wide range of physical ability and gender identities. We constantly strive to be a welcoming community to all.
