Shake, Rattle, and Roll

Friday, June 26 | 11 AM | In-Person

All families with young children are welcome to join us at Sinai with music educator Sarah Parker to sing, dance, and play together! Designed as an introduction to music for children accompanied by their parents (or caregivers), this interactive class uses songs, simple instruments, and movement to nurture early musical skills and listening.

20's and 30's: Services and Sips

Friday, June 26 | Following Shabbat Services | In-Person

After Shabbat services, we'll walk together to a nearby destination for cocktails, mocktails, and conversation. Whether you're looking for spiritual connection, social time, or both—come as you are and stay for the Shabbat vibes and good company.

For location information, please email Rabbi Benoff at rabbibenoff@chicagosinai.org.

Adult Education with Rabbi Greene: The Articles Everyone's Talking About Wednesdays | Beginning July 8 | 11 AM | In-Person and Zoom

Reserve your seat and join the conversation—each week we'll discuss an article, essay, speech, or interview that captures a conversation unfolding in Jewish life today. Together we will explore the questions and debates shaping our community and sharpen our own thinking along the way.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

Chicago Sinai Congregation is committed to being a House of Prayer for All People. Our congregation reflects the rich tapestry of humanity: people of all ages, people of all races, people of diverse religious backgrounds, individuals possessing a wide range of physical ability and gender identities. We constantly strive to be a welcoming community to all.
